Galindo Publicidad Expands Operations, Opens Offices in Downtown Miami

Hollywood, FL . . . After 18 years in business in the U.S., Galindo Publicidad continues to expand and diversify its activities in serving the global needs of individual, government agencies, and corporate clients. Marking the third location for the company, these new offices will “coordinate translation services and deliver efficacious foreign-language translation of the documentation required for a variety of industries and purposes,” according Galindo founder, Martha E. Galindo. From the one-page, certified-birth certificate needed for immigration to the 1000-page manual needed in Spanish, French, Portuguese, and others, Galindo’s teams are ready to help.

New Facility located at One Biscayne Tower, 2 South Biscayne Blvd., Suite 3760, Miami, FL, 33131

The new offices will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. However, the company also offers “after-office hours rush services.” Contact Galindo at info@translationsandmore.com for convenient and affordable arrangements to suit your needs. Clients can submit inquiries and documents via web, by email or fax, and obtain fast and firm quotes. Each project is examined and quoted individually. Galindo provides a customer-focused service with teams of experienced professional- and native-translators.
